At The Grille, we have created this map of New Zealand to help with your understanding of where our wine regions are located.

Central Otago is of course well known for its world class Pinot Noir, which makes up around 80% of the plantings. We have hot, dry summers and crisp, snowy winters with defined seasons throughout the year. Perfect for growing grapes that prefer a shorter growing season, varieties suited to the cool “continental” climate here are Riesling, Pinot Gris, light-bodied Chardonnay, crisp Sauvignon Blanc and elegant sparkling wine.

Further up the country we have Marlborough producing its distinct style of Sauvignon Blanc and Pinot Noir.

Located at the bottom of the North Island, Martinborough offers an altogether more savoury and mineral style Pinot Noir and Chardonnay.

Hawke’s Bay with its long warm summers and cool coastal breeze is great for Bordeaux varieties, Syrah and Chardonnay.

Around Auckland and Waiheke Island the warmer coastal climate is great for fuller-bodied wines and Bordeaux styles.

For your enjoyment we showcase a range of wines of different styles from New Zealand and round the world to suit the wonderful menu our chefs have created.

We hope you enjoy your experience with us.
